Personal Trainers are now expected to be salespeople, psychologists, nutritionists, post-rehabilitation specialists, and motivational speakers. You can have all the training expertise in the world, but you must also be able to inspire passion in your clients, and develop relationships with the people you serve.

Have you ever struggled to get clients? Have you ever desperately tried to retain your clients only to have them drop off? Have you ever searched endlessly for the right gym to work at to no avail? Have you ever been frustrated by the state of the fitness industry and didn’t know what to do? Have you ever thought that there must be more to personal training?

You’re not alone. For years Jon’s been asked these questions so he read, watched, researched and interviewed the best in the world to compile Ignite the Fire. This powerful book will show you how to:
